

Time Stamp checks

The CSProvider offers the possibility to check the date and time of a signed document.

Time Stamp certifies the date and time of hash identifier of a signed document. The time certificate has a serial number, certified precise date and time when the client's electronic document is registered with the Time Stamp server of the certification services provider Spektar.Org.